1. Identify and establish an academic contact/potential supervisor

   sydney.edu.au/research/opportunities
   sydney.edu.au/about/faculties_schools.shtml

2. Develop and submit an initial research proposal
   Once you have initiated discussions with an academic contact(s), if you have not already done so, you should prepare an initial research proposal.

   In general, your proposal should be no more than 500 words in length. However, some faculties such as Law and Economics and Business prefer a more detailed written proposal. Your initial proposal should include the following information:

   Title: Working title for the project.
   Academic staff contact: Name(s) of the academic staff with whom you have discussed your proposal and, if relevant a potential supervisor.
   Objectives: What aims does the work have?
   Synopsis: Briefly describe the key aspects of what you will be investigating.
   Background: Describe what research has already been done in relation to your topic.
   Significance: Why is the topic important?
   Methodology: Approach or methodology to be used in the research.
   Resources: Provide details of the resources required for you to carry out your research project.
   Work plan: An initial plan for completion with annual milestones.

3. Revise and finalise your research proposal In conjunction with your academic contact(s)

4. Application Form
