

Website Migration Checklist

Page 1 of 1

- Backup website files from existing host
- Backup database from existing host
- Record mailbox names and settings such as email forwards, auto replies etc
- Record any custom DNS records at existing host (if applicable)
- Signup for new account at www.fasthit.net
 - Is the chosen account sufficient to host your;
 - Website files (physical disk quota)
 - Database (DB Quota and MSSQL if required?)
 - Does the traffic quota exceed your estimated traffic?
- Add domains to your new account
 - Enable any components you'll need in domain settings such as PHP
 - Contact FastHit to setup ColdFusion (if required)
 - Contact FastHit for Creating DSNs (if required)
 - Enable and install your SSL certificate (if required)
- Add mailboxes to your domain
- Upload website
- Replicate databases/user permissions on FastHit Servers (if required)
- Thoroughly test website using instant access domain alias
- When tested 100%, re-delegate DNS to FastHit's name servers.
 - Primary: dns1.fasthit.net
 - Secondary: dns2.fasthit.net
- Change email settings such as outgoing (smtp) mail server.