arXiv Organizational Chart Kenney, University Librarian Resolve disputes between CUL, MAB, SAB as they relate to CUL's responsibilities Determine termination and need for transition strategy Rieger, Program Director (20%) Myers, Scientific Director (40%) · Oversee membership, business planning, & governance Provide scientific oversight and coordinate the and coordinate the development of associated policies development of associated policies with the SAB arXiv Participate in identifying technical requirements and Participate in identifying technical requirements and setting development priorities setting development priorities co-directors Facilitate MAB and liaise to SAB Facilitate SAB & liaise to MAB Represent arXiv in library and open access forums etc. Represent arXiv in scientific forums etc. Ruddy, User Support Lead (20%) Warner, IT Lead (30%) Porciello, Membership Program Lead (10%)· Operate arXiv's technical infrastructure Oversee arXiv's user-support, Provide interfaces and data access to moderation, and administration Manage arXiv membership program support open reuse of arXiv data; processes (invoices, institutional use, information Coordinate the meetings and Partner with related initiatives and about sustainability program, developing deliberations of the SAB services to share tools and software fund raising strategies) STAFF: Don Beyer, Andrea Salguero Cruz, STAFF: Martin Lessmeister (Lead Jake Weiskoff Developer), Brian Caruso, Dave Fielding, CY14 Staffing: 0.20 Manager (Ruddy) + 2.75 FTF + 0.36 students CY14 Staffing: 0.30 Manager (Warner) 2.50 FTE Programming Staff * CUL indirect contribution Last updated: April 2014

arXiv's Cornell University Library governance model Manages the moderation of submissions and user support, including the development and implementation of policies and procedures Operates arXiv's technical infrastructure, including system maintenance, standards implementation, and development initiatives for incorporating new features and services Coordinates and facilitates the meetings and deliberations of Member and Scientific Advisory boards Provides interfaces and data access to support open reuse of arXiv data Assumes responsibility for archiving to ensure long-term access and maintains arXiv mirror sites Establishes and maintains collaborations with related initiatives to improve services for the scientific community through interoperability and through sharing tools and software Administers the arXiv membership program and assumes ultimate financial responsibility for running arXiv Maintains a transparent and open communication strategy to engage and inform arXiv's key stakeholders Bears responsibility for developing a succession plan in the event it can no longer host the service Scientific Advisory Board Member Advisory Board · Composed of scientists and researchers in areas covered by arXiv · Elected from arXiv's membership, serves as a consultative body Provides advice and guidance pertaining to the intellectual oversight · Represents participating institutions' interests and advises CUL of arXiv, with particular focus on the policies and operation of on issues related to repository management and development, arXiv's moderation system standards implementation, interoperability, development Reviews the criteria and standards for deposit in arXiv and proposes priorities, business planning, and outreach and advocacy revisions to those criteria and standards as it deems warranted · Reviews and comments on arXiv budgets proposed by CUL Proposes new subject or discipline domains to be covered by arXiv and/or reviews proposals for such domains Provides scientist feedback on arXiv development projects proposed Makes recommendations regarding development projects - in particular, suggestions about improvements to the systems that support submission and moderation processing ast updated: April 29, 2012