

Cornell Now: the Campaign for Cornell Engineering

- ❖ What is the Cornell Now Campaign?
- How will the College of Engineering benefit from its participation in this campaign?
- What are the College of Engineering's financial goals?
- What role is the Engineering College Council being asked to play?

What is Cornell Now?

- An expansion of Cornell's fundraising campaign through 2015
- A commitment to ensuring adequate funding in support of the priorities outlined in the University's Sesquicentennial strategic plan
- An effort to raise an additional $1.4B for Cornell by 2015
- An opportunity for each College to seek support for its most pressing priorities
 - College of Engineering Goal: $185M

CORNELL ENGINEERING

Cornell Now: the College of Engineering in 2015

FACULTY

- Additional funds for 25+ faculty lines including funds to help attract and recruit URMs and women of the highest quality
- Fund at least 4 of the additional faculty lines necessary to create an undergraduate major in BME
- Provide increased capacity in energy research

PROGRAMS

 Underwrite the Student Teams program and other Experiential Learning Initiatives

Cornell Now: the College of Engineering in 2015

STUDENT AID

- Cut our graduate fellowship gap by nearly half
- Improve access for undergraduates through enhanced scholarship opportunities

INFRASTRUCTURE

- Provide the necessary facilities and upgrades to support the new BME undergraduate major
- Complete the funding needed for the Physical Sciences Building

ORNELL ENGINEERING

College of Engineering Campaign Priorities

❖ Named BME department	$35M
Graduate Fellowships	$30M
UG Scholarships	$11.75M
Experiential and Entre-
preneurial Learning	$10M
❖ Faculty Lines	$9M
Faculty Renewal	$7.5M
Energy & Sustainable
Development	$9M
Faculty Diversity	$1M
❖ Physical Sciences Bldg	$1.25M

Cornell Now: Cornell Engineering Fundraising Goals & FY12 Outlook

Campaign Goals

- CoE Campaign Goal*: $185M
 - $23.9M raised to date
- FY12 Annual Goal: $33M
 - $2.0M raised to date
- Faculty Renewal Goal: $7.5M
 - $4.2M raised to date

FY12 Outlook

• In Process: $7.8M

Declined: $6.625M

• Deferred: $750K

Remaining: $95M

*Campaign timeline July 1, 2010 - December 31, 2015

CORNELL ENGINEERIN

Cornell Now: Developing Future Leaders at the College of Engineering

Engineering Leadership Program

- Formal leadership curriculum open to all Engineering undergraduate students
- Funds to hire new Director of Engineering Leadership
- Students can obtain a certificate in leadership
- Curriculum modules include:
 - Project management
 - Group dynamics
 - Communication skills
 - Personal inventory of skills
 - Building inclusive teams/organizations
 - Creating & implementing a vision seeing the big picture
 - Understanding the economic, social and political environment

Cornell Now: Enhancing Faculty Recruiting in the College of Engineering

Andreea Minca -

- Assistant Professor, ORIE
- BS & MS, Applied Mathematics, l'Ecole Polytechnique, 2007
- PhD, Mathematics, Pierre et Marie Curie University, 2011

Research interests: Resilience of financial networks to contagion

CORNELL ENGINEERING

Cornell Now: Enhancing Faculty Recruiting in the College of Engineering

Greg Fuchs -

- Assistant Professor, AEP
- BS, Physics & Chemistry, Univ. Wisconsin-Madison, 1996
- M.S., Applied Physics, Cornell University 2003
- PhD, Applied Physics, Cornell University, 2007

Research interests: Solid state systems

The Engineering College Council and Cornell Now

- Major Gifts Committee
 - Enhance efforts of AA&D by helping to identify, engage, solicit and thank donors
- ❖ 100% annual giving participation
- Make a campaign gift in support of a campaign priority
- ❖ Participate in future ECC funding initiatives

CORNELL ENGINEERING

Cornell Engineering Major Gifts Committee

- · Current Members
 - Duane Stiller, chair
 - Sarah Fischell
 - Sam Fleming*
 - Dan Simpkins
 - Roger Strauch*
- Seeking additional committee members from within ECC and newly recruited members

*indicates membership on the University MGC

