Description   « Hide

Currently SIP data gets loaded into Budget (see KIUP-435), an it winds up in the warehouse. Unit people will then query it to confirm its accuracy. They can then make corrections if necessary and load it again. This is only done at one time during the budget cycle, but it's done by separate units, and might need to be done multiple times for each unit.

Eventually this will simply be a KDW download, but for this first year it is not expected that these data will be in the warehouse, so some manner of interim solution will be needed.
