

The Student Library Advisory Council will hold its second meeting of the academic year on Monday, Oct. 17 from 5:00-6:30 pm in 703 Olin Library. Pizza and drinks will be provided. The agenda includes

1. Information fluency

One of the Library's priority objectives for 2011-2012 is to ensure that Cornell students are information fluent by building information literacy programs that will achieve college learning outcomes. Mary Ochs, Director of Mann Library, and Jaron Porciello, Coordinator of Instruction Services at Mann, will discuss the strategies the Library is employing to accomplish this objective and seek your input into the process.

2. E-Portfolios

A growing number of faculty are experimenting with the use of e-portfolios in their classes as a way to facilitate and assess learning. CIT has a pilot e-portfolio program. Oya Rieger, Associate University Librarian for Digital Scholarship Services, will talk about e-portfolios and seek your perspectives on this learning and assessment tool.

3. Plans for a 5th floor graduate reading room in Olin Library

Pat Schafer, Director of Service Strategies, will present the plans.
