

Collections

Sample Cornell University Library Collections

Native American History

Books and pamphlets from the Huntington Free Library Native American Collection, which arrived at Cornell in June 2004. The Huntington Free Library features more than 4,000 rare books on the aboriginal peoples of the western hemisphere. Genres represented in exceptional depth include early books of voyage and exploration, missionary reports, ethnography, travel writing, native language dictionaries, captivity narratives, and children's books.

The French Revolution

Cornell Library's French Revolution Collection, which includes thousands of books and pamphlets on 18th century revolutionary France. The collection is strongest in the areas of economy and finance, the Revolutionary government, and Revolutionary culture, with unusual strength in popular culture.

Women's Suffrage

Pamphlets and leaflets on the history of the American women's suffrage movement held in Cornell Library's Lindseth Suffrage Collection.

City and Regional Planning

Pamphlets on the history of city and regional planning from the extensive collection of city planner John Nolen (1869-1937). Cornell Library holds the papers documenting John Nolen's life and work.

American Temperance Movement

Books and pamphlets on the history of the temperance movement and related materials on the consumption of alcohol, ca. 1830-1920.

Cornell and Regional History

Books and related materials on the early history of Cornell and the Ithaca region.

Collections Overview - The Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections includes 400,000 printed volumes, more than 70 million manuscripts, and another million photographs, paintings, prints, and other visual media.