Website Resources

The website has been designed to be a dynamic and ever changing part of the AguaClara team publicity. Each semester the website needs to be assessed and revised to ensure that it is an accurate representation of the AguaClara project.

Many pieces of the website need to be monitored and edited multiple times per semester. A guide for updating the website throughout the semester has been developed to aid in the upkeep of the site.

As AguaClara continues to grow the website will need to change accordingly. As of Spring 2010, here are plans for the future of the outreach website.

The website is linked through the AguaClara Google account and can be edited by going to sites.google.com
