

2010 Awards

FACULTY NAME	DEPARTMENT	PROPOSAL SUMMARY	PROJECT TYPE
Janice Kane mitsu  Dan McKee	Asian Studies  Asia Collections /CUL	Japanese Theatre Manuscripts - nineteenth century woodblock printed, heavily illustrated books on the Japanese theater. 20 Volumes /1600 pages	Digitization and online delivery
Annette Alexander dis	Classics/Art History	Cornell's plaster cast collection that once consisted of ca. 600 casts of statues and inscriptions (made in the 19th century mainly from Greek and Roman, but also from Egyptian, Near Eastern, European Medieval and Renaissance objects), and several hundred casts of medallions and gem stones.	Digitization and online delivery
Howard Howland	Representing CAPE (Cornell Association of Professors Emeriti)	Update "Contributions to Cornell history: Portraits and Memorabilia" by Elizabeth Baker Wells (Olin Ref LD 1371.WD 45) This book of 265 pages was published in 1984 with a supplement published about 10 years later. It lists about 2000 plaques, pictures, sculptures, and other objects of artistic and historical interest scattered around the Cornell campus. It is an invaluable record of the University's historical and artistic artifacts.	Digitization, OCR for Database Development
Kath Marsh  Bronwen Bledsoe	Anthropology  South Asia Collection/CUL	Nepali Texts 25,000 disbound pages	Digitization and online delivery
David Bathrick	German Studies	Müller: Kluge – interviews between West German writer and film maker Alexander Kluge and the East German playwright Heiner Müller	Additional video content integrated into existing web delivery platform