

jeg272

During the Fall 2010 semester I have worked on the design team. I am working on the vertical baffle design and autocad integration. We are currently working on the code to determine the number of baffles in a trough and the length of the baffle modules. We will next be using existing Mathcad code to develop autocad models of the baffle modules.