

ProCoDA Functions

ProCoDA Functions

Process controller has the capability of connecting to external code to add new functional capabilities. The external code is used for a wide variety of tasks include acquiring data from turbidity meters, calculating the pump speed for peristaltic pumps, and incrementing a parameter over a range of values.