

meg325

Summer 2012 Contributions

I am on the Foam Filtration team. This summer we will test both the coarse and fine components of the foam filtration system to determine the length of one filtration cycle. We also hope to identify an adequate method to determine when the foam needs cleaning via the plunging method. Our ultimate goal is to provide a portable filtration system designed to provide clean water in emergency situations.