

Microsoft Office for Chemistry Grad students

Everyone at Cornell can get MS Office for free, on their personal devices.

Students can get MS Office for free

Here's how:

- <http://www.it.cornell.edu/services/office365/apps/student.cfm>

Summary, valid as of Dec. 2, 2016:

Here's a direct link to the page that lets you install Office on a personally owned computer:

- <https://portal.office.com/OLS/MySoftware.aspx>

If you get a generic Microsoft login screen, when you enter your <NetID@cornell.edu> address into the <someone@example.com> box and tab to the next field, you will be forwarded to Cornell's login screen, where you can enter your NetID password.

Historical info only

Info from before O365's license allowed everyone to get 5 copies for their personal computers.

DEPRECATED PAGE. Grads used to have to buy Office if they wanted it on their personal computers. Microsoft has since changed their licensing of O365.
