

Home

This is the home page for the Public Computing Technologies space. The purpose of the Public Computing Technologies group is to identify new technologies that are used by patrons to determine if there is an application within Mann Library. Two current technologies being investigated are podcasts and text messaging.

Group Membership:

Holly Mistlebauer, Chair <hlm7@cornell.edu>
Camille Andrews <ca92@cornell.edu>
Donna Callais <dmc8@cornell.edu>
Nick Cappadona <nac26@cornell.edu>
Michael Cook <mnc2@cornell.edu>
Eveline Ferretti <ef15@cornell.edu>
Philip Halcomb <pdh28@cornell.edu>
Jim Morris-Knowler <jpk15@cornell.edu>
Jeff Piestrak <jmp36@cornell.edu>

Contact Information:

mann-podcast-l@cornell.edu

Podcast Subscription/Download Page:

<http://podcasts.mannlib.cornell.edu/>

Podcast Help Page:

http://mannlib.cornell.edu/podcasts/podcast_help.cfm

Public Computing Technologies Sub-Spaces

- General Information
 - Podcasting 101
- Meeting Minutes
 - 07-02-28 Meeting Notes
- Open Issues
- Related Articles
- Sample Sites
 - Purdue University - Boilercast
 - Stanford University - itunes.stanford.edu
- Statistics