Hi Oliver,

FYI - update info for the CrystalMaker program that the library licenses. Roald Hoffman's lab is using this, his postdoc has already contacted us.

Best,

Leah

Subject: CrystalMaker Licensing Data

Hi Natalie,

Here is the new info for CrystalMaker, including a few different programs for both Mac and Windows computers. Can you forward this to those who have asked about it?

Many thanks,

Leah

Your licence code(s) and download link(s) are given below.

 IMPORTANT: ACTION REQUIRED NOW ***

1. Please download your software immediately. We cannot guarantee that our website or these links will always be available!
2. You must keep a backup of the software, in case you need to re-install it at a later date, or on a different machine.
3. Keep your licensing information safe: you may need to re-enter the code(s) if you install updates. (We provide regular, free updates, on our website.)

Your licence code(s) are confidential and should not be made public. The code(s) are for the sole, exclusive use of the licensed user(s).

You must agree to the terms of the software licence agreement when you install the software: this will be displayed on screen, but can also be reviewed online, at <http://crystallmaker.com/sales/licence-agreement.html>.

Oliver,

Below is information for another software I license for chemistry. If you want to pull down copies of the software and store license codes to back me up.

Thanks,

Leah
