

Speaker: Ben Fino-Radin, Associate Media Conservator, Museum of Modern Art

Thursday, March 17th, 1:30 - 3pm, Mann 102

Please join us for an open, joint session of the Metadata Working Group and RepoExec welcomes Ben Fino-Radin, Associate Media Conservator, Museum of Modern Art. He will be speaking on MoMA's digital repository solution and ongoing progress with its core elements, Archivematica, Arkivum, and Binder. As we continue to explore digital preservation options here at Cornell University Library, this event is meant to help inspire conversation and continue to expose and discover shared needs across the library and beyond, in regard to digital preservation. Ben's expertise in open-source preservation solutions will help us understand the changing landscape that is critical to our mission of preserving information for the future.
