Get sign-off on Physics RedNet network

Clarify purpose, responsible parties, and relevant roles and responsibilities. Currently only the Grad Lab and their server's services.

See also

- Review Physics non-research web site services
- Internet services running out of the Linux Lab
- Physics lab computers and status

Sign PhysIT's RedNet form

One main intent of having the form signed is to promote conversations to clarify purpose, identify responsible parties, and review relevant roles and responsibilities.

The form is currently crafted with Chemistry-related language. Must we invest to change it or is it "good enough" to ensure necessary conversations, understandings, and agreements?

- Chemistry's Computer Exception Form and related networks