

Completing Your Module

Contributor Resources Home

- 1. Introduction to Editing in Confluence
- 2. Creating a Module Using the Template
- 3. Adding Content to your Module
- 4. Completing Your Module
- Additional Resources

Add you tutorial to the main page

After getting Prof. Bhaskaran's approval, watch the following video to add your tutorial to the main page.

- Get Prof. Bhaskaran's approval to add content to the main page
- Go to ANSYS (or FLUENT) Learning Modules and click Edit
- Go to the end of the Table containing the tutorials
- Click on any cell of last row and click "Add row after"
 - First cell: add a picture. Change its size to 150px
 - Second cell: write the name of the tutorial (hit enter to enlarge the text). Link it to your tutorial's main page
 - Third cell: Course/Research group for which your tutorial was created
 - Fourth cell: Type of analysis. Use other tutorials as reference.
- Click Save.

(Future: Show them how to create a discussion on Piazza for the students)

Go to: Additional Resources