

Presentation by Karen Estlund: May 11th, 11:00AM-12:30 PM

- Who: Karen Estlund, the Associate Dean for Technology and Digital Strategies for Penn State Libraries.
- What: The final Metadata Working Group meeting of the semester!
- Karen will start by speaking about the work she is doing at Penn State and the wider library world with time for questions.
And since this year's MWG agenda has focused on training and hands-on work, Karen has also graciously offered to lead an activity in which everyone can participate. So grab a marker and some post-it notes and get ready to model some data.
- When: Thursday, May 11th, 11:00am-12:30pm (Note the time change since we realized it was Slope Day)
- Where: Mann 160
