

CU's Gmail (CMail) service, direct send

Send an email directly to Cmail, bypassing O365 (and likely also Cornell's main email infrastructure): <NetID@g.cornell.edu>

9/10/17: Figured this out and tested it- neat!

- Since it bypasses O365's infrastructure, it is potentially useful for de-bugging Exchanged-routed email issues for those of us with such accounts (alumni).
