Cornell University Library Instruction Charge

The Instruction Team provides leadership for library-wide instruction initiatives, and supports CUL in its commitment to effective instruction and comprehensive information and related literacies (data literacy, visual literacy, media literacy, primary source literacy), by serving as a clearinghouse for information, facilitating a community of practice, and partnering with other groups on initiatives and projects of shared import.

End of Semester Events

In December, the Instruction Team hosts an end-of-semester event featuring trainings, presentations, refreshments, and discussion. Every May, Instruction co-organizes an end of semester event with the Outreach and Engagement (O&E) and Liaison Program Steering committees. The Instruction Team uses these outlets to highlight a variety of instruction methods being taught, in addition to conducting workshops and training on how to improve instruction. Topics might include: assessment, teaching with technology, threshold concepts, and curriculum development. Instructors working on new projects are invited to share their work with the larger group.

Subteams

Within Instruction, tasks are distributed across subteams:

- Leadership
