

FOLIO Reporting Team Members

The FOLIO Reporting Team provides data delivery services to the Cornell University Library. The team is composed of representatives from different areas of the Cornell Library.

| Name                       | Title   | Cornell Library Department                   |
|----------------------------|---|--|
| Vandana Shah               | Research and Assessment Analyst                   | Assessment and Planning                      |
| Natalya Pikulik            | Batch Processing & Database Management Specialist | Library Technical Services, Automation group |
| Jean Pajerek               | Associate Director for Information Management     | Law Library                                  |
| Joanne Leary               | Access Services and Collections Data Analyst      | Collection Data Analysis                     |
| Linda Miller               | Assessment Librarian                              | Assessment and Planning                      |
| Ann Crowley                | Acquisitions Funds Manager                        | Finance and Budget Office                    |
| Sharon Beltaine, Team Lead | Senior Library Systems Analyst                    | Information Technologies                     |