

Metadb System Administration

| Resource                                                           | Description                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Metadb Documentation                               | complete system setup and administration guide from Index Data                                                         |
| Metadb Software                                    | github repository for the open source Metadb software                                                                  |
| Creating Additional Metadb Schemas                 | information on setting up additional table schemas in Metadb                                                           |
| Optimizing the Sync and Resync Processes in Metadb | information on optimizing the synchronization and resynchronization of data from a FOLIO database to a Metadb database |
| Metadb Issue Log                                   | issue log on the github repository for the open source Metadb software                                                 |
| Metadb Release Notes                               | Notes and Tags on each release of the Metadb software                                                                  |
| Miscellaneous Notes on Metadb                      | Miscellaneous notes about how the Metadb software works                                                                |